

Why Do America's Churches Support Tyranny?

By David J. Stewart | September 2008

“If Tyranny and Oppression come to this land, it will be in the guise of fighting a foreign enemy.” —James Madison

Tyranny: A form of government in which the ruler is an absolute dictator (not restricted by a constitution or laws or opposition).

The entire basis upon which the Bush Administration invaded Iraq was alleged Weapons Of mass Destruction (WMD's), which have yet to be found. The American people have been sold one lie after another. First the Bush Administration blamed Iraq for being involved in the 911 attacks (which they weren't).

Then they claimed that Saddam was a madman who needed to be removed from power (nevermind the millions killed by Nixon and Reagan). Yet, once Saddam was removed from power, the Bush Administration continued killing and pillaging in Iraq. To date, there is not one valid reason why America ever attacked Iraq, except to steal their oil. Congress, nor the American people ever approved of this war. It's called "tyranny."

Is Sarah Palin's God a Liar and a War Criminal?

In June, 2008, Alaska Governor Sarah Palin, now Republican Senator John McCain's choice for his running mate as vice-president, spoke to a group of ministry students at her Wasilla, Alaska Assembly of God Church. Palin asked these church leaders to pray for soldiers, including her own son, who would soon be deployed to Iraq, in these words: "that our leaders, our national leaders, are sending [U.S. soldiers] out on a task that is from God. That's what we have to make sure that we're praying for, that there is a plan and that that plan is God's plan."

Would God's plan include lying about, and misrepresenting crucial information about, the alleged reasons for going to war against Iraq? Would it include commission of the "supreme international crime" of waging an unprovoked, unnecessary war of aggression against a nation and its people who never threatened the United States? What kind of God would have such a plan? [Emphasis added]

Invading Iraq... "a plan from God"? It is disturbing indeed that so many professed Christians nowadays fail to think for themselves and actually believe that God approves of what we're doing to the Iraqi people. The Bible teaches in Proverbs 6:16-19 that God

HATES: a proud look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren. The Bush Administration is guilty on all charges.

President George Bush Jr. spit in the face of every American citizen, soldier, veteran and family of killed soldiers when he mocked and laughed at a elite dinner party about not being able to find alleged Weapons Of Mass Destruction. Clearly, there never were any to begin with, which is why he is joking about it. The filthy rich people in the room aren't fools, they know exactly what is going on; but the average American is in complete and utter darkness, duped by the lying newsmedia. Sadly, this includes most Christians. People are predictably gullible and prone to go along with the common consensus that's propagated by the mainstream newsmedia.

The Iraqi War was about stealing Iraq's oil and gaining control over the nation...

Greenspan admits Iraq was about oil, as deaths put at 1.2 million

"The man once regarded as the world's most powerful banker has bluntly declared that the Iraq war was 'largely' about oil.

Appointed by Ronald Reagan in 1987 and retired last year after serving four presidents, Alan Greenspan has been the leading Republican economist for a generation and his utterings instantly moved world markets.

In his long-awaited memoir - out tomorrow in the US - Greenspan, 81, who served as chairman of the US Federal Reserve for almost two decades, writes: 'I am saddened that it is politically inconvenient to acknowledge what everyone knows: the Iraq war is largely about oil.' "

The American public has been lied to repeatedly. The average American is woefully ignorant, and even worse, willfully ignorant of so many things. This includes professed Christians. The newsmedia are nothing more than highly paid liars. While trillions of taxpayer dollars have been stolen by the Federal Reserve Banksters, the newsmedia is more concerned about Sandra Bullock's MTV award and Tiger Wood's golf record. We get what we deserve as a sin-loving nation.

America loves war! We are good at it. We've had 10-wars in just a little over 200-years. We can't build a decent car in America, nor can we educate our children, nor can we build a TV or VCR anymore, nor can we provide healthcare for our elderly; but we sure know how to bomb and destroy other countries. It's the American way. The United States is the ONLY nation that has troops policing foreign nations! The U.S. has troops in DOZENS of foreign nations! If we followed the U.S. Constitution, we'd bring all the troops home and mind our own business!

The truth is that America is being exploited by it's overlords at The Council On Foreign Relations, to bring to fruition a global system of economics, government, religion, law and control. This will be the Beast System of the coming Antichrist. This was the intended purpose for America's inception, plotted by Freemasonry occultists for centuries. Very few people understand the things I am saying, because they are too apathetic to study and search for the truth. The truth is very plain and simple if you desire to have it. Sarah Palin speaks lies. She is an illuminati puppet, a wannabe at the U.S. Presidency, and she may get her chance in 2012 . . .

Republican vice presidential candidate, Alaska Governor Sarah Palin, with her daughter Willow holding her son Trig, campaigns at a rally in Henderson, Nevada. Notice how Palin makes a Satanic sign with both hands! Boy was she desperate to get elected! Sarah Palin is a sell-out, clearly showing her willingness to spiritually fornicate with the Devil, i.e., "wickedness in high places" (Ephesians 6:12).

I Don't Support the Troops, and Neither Should You!

I know I am going to be very unpopular here, but I have to stand for the convictions that I believe to be pleasing to God. No one should be loyal to people over principle, or tradition over truth, or religion over righteousness. I am not loyal to any institution nor organization; but rather, to the Word of God and to what is right.

All across America, naive pastors uplift and support the evils that are being committed by The White House. This is sinful. Our troops are being used as Herod's henchman to kill innocent people in Iraq. The same pastors and Christians supporting our troops would have also supported the Roman troops killing all the Jewish babies in Jesus' time. They would have rallied behind Adolf Hitler as the ruler of the people.

At what point does an afflicted society, including its Christian citizens, have a God-given right to dissent and rise up against its oppressors? America wouldn't be here today if our founding fathers hadn't resorted to violence to get their point across. It was President John F. Kennedy who rightfully said, "Those who make peaceful revolution impossible make violent revolution inevitable."

It's coming down to a standoff in America between the people and the government. The offshore Banksters who are behind the New World Order are going to send foreign troops into America, to smash the resistance, and they will win! You will witness Chinese troops marching on U.S. soil and Americans will be enslaved! God has given us over to tyranny because of our nation's wickedness. Judgment Day is upon us! A Police State is being setup! We are now witnessing the fall of America!

I cannot support the troops, because what they are doing is evil. I am not against the military. I am not against war. But the Bible says go to make war with "good advice" (Proverb 20:18). Our nation lied its way into war with Iraq. The New World Order gang is stealing Iraq's oil. Over one million Iraqi's have been murdered. America's troops did this! If you support the troops, then you are ignoring God's Commandments which forbid bearing false witness, stealing and killing. I am tired of people who claim to love America at all cost, evil if it means lying, stealing, conniving and cheating to do so. In reality you only love yourself and don't care about America's reputation.

It's so idiotic! The very same pastors and Christian leaders who think they are being patriotic by supporting the troops, are defending acts of treason and wickedness that have betrayed America's integrity and character. You're not patriotic because you look the other way and support a wicked agenda, you're part of the problem, a coward, a shame to your nation, and as unpatriotic as can be for selling out your nation. Patriotism is not supporting evil. Patriotism is not supporting a particular political party or White House administration. No Sir! Blind loyalty is not patriotism, it's stupidity! Most people support the troops because that's what everyone else is doing. And you're too much of a coward as a Christian leader to go against the crowd. We should never go along to get along!

I realize that most of the troops are just young men and women doing what they're told, but that doesn't make murdering the innocent and stealing their wealth ok. Anyone can label a foreign power as "terrorist" and target them. Our troops are not fighting for America's freedom. The bogus claims about freedom fighters is all a bunch of fabricated lying propaganda. The military's psyops unit does nothing but manipulate the public (and it works!). This is why Homeland Security has a paid operative working in Hollywood, incorporating brainwashing government propaganda into the movies and television that Americans watch. Are you sure you want to watch TV?

I have to say this, because it's the truth. I DON'T support the troops in Iraq! How can I? They're doing so much evil. I do not hate the troops. I have seen dozens and dozens of Christian websites boast, "We Support Our Troops." May I ask "why"? Do you support tyranny? Do you support shedding innocent blood? Do you support murdering over one million Iraqis to steal their oil? People mindlessly support the troops because they were handed a bumper sticker or because they have read the catchy phrase so much that they mindlessly accept it.

If you want to support murder, theft and false witness, then that's your decision; but I have a conscience before God. I support being honest. I support doing unto others as I want done unto me. Those are my neighbors in Iraq, and yours too. What have we done to those poor people? Why are we still invading their nation? We went in to take out ONE MAN, Saddam, and instead have taken over ONE MILLION LIVES!

Yet, nutcase Americans support the troops? What is wrong with people? The problem is that people are not right with God, so they don't care. The Bible says in 1st Peter 5:7 that God cares. If you know God as a born-again Christian, then you will CARE. Caring is the hallmark quality of being a Christian, which includes a desire to win souls to Jesus Christ. It all comes down to caring. Most people don't care nowadays because most people don't know God at all. I CARE!

Perhaps you say, "I don't support the war, I only support our troops because they're just doing what they're paid to do." So then you must also support the prostitute on the street whose pimp is controlling her, right? So then you must also support the people who killed Terri Schiavo because they were just doing their job, right? How about the State lawyer who is just doing his job to persecute good parents for not allowing their child to be guinea pigs, for not bowing to the drug companies? How about the abortion doctor who's just doing his job? Do you support such doctors?

At what point does a person become accountable to God for the job they do? Is the abortion doctor just doing his job? Our troops are responsible to God for every person they murder under the pretense of bringing "freedom" to Iraq, and the greater sin is upon our nation as a whole for allowing it. Just because the government hands a young man a loaded gun and misleads him to think he's killing for freedom—doesn't relieve him of the responsibility of his actions. Defending America is one thing; lying, killing the innocent and stealing natural resources from another nation is evil.

Those are fathers and sons being murdered in Iraq (and many women and children too). What if that were us? What if China falsely accused the U.S. and invaded our nation? Would not our men go to war to defend our nation? Yes, of course. And what if the Chinese killed over one million of our citizens in the name of "freedom" and then started to steal our natural resources? Would we still support the troops? No way! If we truly lived the GOLDEN RULE as Jesus taught it, then we never would have invaded Iraq in the first place... "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets" (Matthew 7:12).

Like it or not, the truth is that U.S. troops are being used as PAID mercenaries, i.e., one paid to fight another's war. Only an ignorant fool believes that our troops are fighting for "freedom" in Iraq. Communism usually comes in the form of Democracy. The worst forms of tyranny are always shielded behind so-called law and justice. I am not trying to be unkind, just honest. I cannot support what our troops are doing in Iraq, regardless of how sincere they may be. People are needlessly dying. The average Christian believer couldn't care less in America, blindly supporting whatever a Republican President does. It's time for Christians to wake up and stop supporting tyranny.

Consider this powerful quote from the man of God, Dr. John R. Rice...

"So, as an honest Bible preacher, obeying the plain commands of God, I must speak out against corruption and immorality. Waste, corruption, the taking away of men's freedom and the seizing of men's property, these sins every honest preacher must condemn and every honest Christian must disavow. "

Amen! I am speaking out against corruption, the taking away of men's freedom and lives, and the seizing of men's property and natural resources by the U.S. led coalition in Iraq. It is our duty as believers to refute such works of darkness (Ephesians 5:11).

What is wrong with so-called Christians today? The lesser problem is woeful ignorance. The greater problem is human nature, i.e., people don't think for themselves. It's so much easier to allow your pastor or the newsmedia to tell you what to think. However, Jesus commanded us to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES in John 5:39. The Bible condemns tyranny, shedding innocent blood, bearing false witness, murder and stealing.

I dread to think what will happen if McCain and Sarah Palin get elected to office. McCain has already publicly stated: "I disagree with what the majority of the American people want." McCain has also committed America to potentially remain in Iraq for another 100-years. Satan (I mean Sarah) Palin errantly thinks that the Iraqi invasion is "God's plan." It's sickening that so many religious Americans arrogantly think God always supports us—just because we are Americans, no matter what we do, or how much we sin, or how many millions of human lives we murder, or how rotten and evil we are, or how many nations we bomb and destroy, or who we steal from...

Would God's plan include lying about, and misrepresenting crucial information about, the alleged reasons for going to war against Iraq? Would it include commission of the "supreme international crime" of waging an unprovoked, unnecessary war of aggression against a nation and its people who never threatened the United States? What kind of God would have such a plan?

I agree with the author of the preceding quote. Certainly, Sarah Palin does not speak for the God of the Bible. The Scriptures condemn: a proud look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren" (Proverb 6:16-19). The Bush Administration is guilty on all charges. God is NOT a part of such evil and brutal oppression, and no Christian should support it either.

The bottom line is that most people don't know God, don't want truth, don't care about what's right and don't listen to reason. The Bible speaks of "unreasonable and wicked men" (2nd Thessalonians 3:2). Most people don't care how many Iraqi's die, they're still going to support the troops, no matter what they do. Most people just don't care, they're stubborn and wicked. I see so many people defending evil, whether it be abortionists or a crook who takes advantage of others. In Mark 7:9, Jesus plainly stated that the Jews openly and fully rejected God's Word. They couldn't have cared less about obeying God, just as most people today don't care either.

The big question is: Do you care about anyone other than yourself? If you care, then the fate of the victims of 911 should bother you. The killing of Iraqis should bother you. The theft of trillions of taxpayer dollars should bother you. But you probably don't care either. I heard a man say that he didn't care about the victims of 911, because they weren't his family. That's such a selfish and wicked attitude to have. Philippians 2:21, "For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's." Churches support tyranny because they don't care about the things of Jesus Christ.
